Concentration of media ownership (also known as media consolidation or media convergence) is a process whereby progressively fewer individuals or organizations control increasing shares of the mass media. Contemporary research demonstrates increasing levels of consolidation, with many media industries already highly concentrated and dominated by a very small number of firms.

4 I. Introduction 4. At the 1998 Industry Ministerial, a new direction for industrial policy was stressed and Ministers agreed on a number of priority areas for future work, including corporate governance.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: EFFECTS ON FIRM PERFORMANCE AND

A corporation is a company, a group of people or an organization authorized to act as a single entity (legally a person) and recognized as such in law. Early incorporated entities were established by charter (i.e. by an ad hoc act granted by a monarch or passed by a parliament or legislature). Most jurisdictions now allow the creation of new corporations through registration.
